2026–2027 CATALOG

MAGNIFY GOD

We are Positive Action for Christ, a nonprofit publishing ministry that exists to help teachers magnify the majesty of God.

We produce Bible studies that are . . .

- God-Focused. We write studies to magnify His character and work. In each passage of Scripture, students should first see how God reveals Himself.
- Biblically Grounded. Our books should give students an engaging companion to Scripture, with notes on context, culture, language, and application. By studying the Bible on their own, students can build a relationship with its Author.
- Teacher-Driven. We believe that God disciplines His children through face-to-face contact with teachers like you. Therefore, we publish resources to strengthen your unique class curriculum.

Thanks to the feedback and support of teachers around the world, this nonprofit, independent ministry has thrived for over 50 years. We strive to keep our material accountable to God and to you, and we trust Him to use us all to introduce His grace to many students in the years to come.

LESSON 23 REVIEW

23-A THE STORY OF THE EXODUS

Complete the sentences by writing the letter of the correct picture.

- ▶ As a sign of God's power, Aaron's staff turned into a
- ▶ God sent on the Egyptians.
- ▶ God worked through Moses to bring Israel out of .
- ▶ Two guided Israel through the wilderness.
- ▶ When Moses raised his staff, God parted the .
- ▶ God told Moses to throw a in the water at Marah.

What did God feed Israel in the wilderness? Mark the correct pictures.

Before reaching Marah, the Israelites walked three days with little water. Draw a path through the maze.

LESSON 30 TWELVE SPIES

Scripture Memory – 2 Corinthians 5:7

For the Teacher

This lesson covers Israel's first opportunity to enter the land of Canaan. After hearing the spies' report in Kadesh, the people rebelled against Moses. God responded by forcing Israel to wander the wilderness for 40 years, meaning the older Israelites would not see the promised land. Thankfully, God was already preparing a new generation willing to trust Him.

Content Objectives

- 30-A Moses sent twelve men to scout out Canaan, and they described a land with great wealth and strong people.
- 30-B At Kadesh, the people of Israel rebelled against God.
- 30-C We can answer our fears with hope in God's promises.

Learning Objectives

Students should be able to . . .

- Explain key events from Numbers 13–14, including the spies' report and Israel's rebellion
- Discuss the usefulness of trust and hope in answering fears
- Relate encouraging principles from Scripture to relevant personal worries

Vocabulary

- Spy / Scout – Someone who travels ahead of a group to explore a place
- Rebel – To oppose a ruler or some other authority, often with violence
- Generation – All the people born during the same time period, often 25–40 years

SESSION 30-A SCOUTING THE LAND

Review Since the time of Abraham and Joseph, what land had God promised to Israel? Where were the Israelites traveling?

Explain God gave the land of Canaan to the Israelites. This place would be their new home. But the Canaanite kingdoms and tribes were very wicked. They worshiped idols and hurt their own people. God did not want Israel to allow these sins in their new home.

So God told Israel to destroy some of the cities and strongholds of the Canaanites. Israel would offer peace to anyone that accepted it, but they would need to fight some battles.

Prompt As you read verses from Numbers 13–14, consider asking students to answer the questions in section 30-A (SM pp. 133–134).

Numbers 13–14 When the Israelites finally got close to Canaan, God told Moses to send twelve men into Canaan. Read Numbers 13:1–2.

Spy / Scout
Someone who travels ahead of a group to explore a place

Moses chose one man from each tribe in Israel. He told them to look around Canaan, and then come back to describe what it was like. Moses also told them to bring back some fruit from the land, which they did. Read verses 21–23.

The scouts did what Moses told them, then came back. Read verses 25–26. They had been gone for 40 days, and they met the Israelites again in a place called Kadesh. This is where they gave their report to Moses and the rest of the people. Read verses 27–28.

Many Israelites were scared of the Canaanites, but one man thought that Israel could take the land. Read verse 30. Unfortunately, the other spies thought differently. Read verse 31.

Joshua agreed with Caleb. Why do you think that these two men were so confident? How could Israel win against these powerful kingdoms?

Read Numbers 14:6–9. Joshua and Caleb trusted in God's help.

Prompt Let students complete the questions in 30-A (SM pp. 133–134).

Target Truth To obey God, we must first trust Him.

The Inner Man

With Spiritual Leadership
by J. Oswald Sanders

As followers of God, we must be “strengthened with might by His Spirit in the inner man” (Eph. 3:16). This Bible study helps young people focus on inward development, not just outward conformity. Students learn from Scripture that righteousness results from God changing us—that our actions should reflect inner grace and strong character.

God's Prevailing Work (Vol. 1)

Themes in Church History, AD 30–1517

Church history is the record of God's tenacious grace—growing and abounding in the hearts of imperfect people just like us. As we study the challenges of Christians in centuries past, we can better appreciate God's work in our own era. In this history-laden Bible study, students will trace the broad movements of the Christian church, from its earliest days to the dawn of the Reformation. They will analyze passages of Scripture that describe God's work through His church—while also sampling the writings of notable Christian figures.

This 13-lesson, self-guided study can supplement Bible, history, literature, or worldview courses. Recommended for students with a tenth-grade reading level or above.

PURCHASING DIGITAL STUDENT MANUALS

Step 1: Purchase Licenses

Visit positiveaction.org.au to purchase digital student manual licenses for your students. Each new student needs one license for one study for one year.

Step 2: Download Files

After your order has been approved and processed, we'll send an email to let you know that you can download the workbook files off our website. The PDFs arrive in a compressed ZIP folder, which you can un-zip on a PC or Mac.

- On a PC, right-click the ZIP and select "Extract All."
- On a Mac, double-click the ZIP.

Step 3: Deliver Files

Once you've unzipped the PDFs, you can send them to your students like any other file—all at once, or one lesson at a time. Since the files contain no built-in restrictions, you can distribute or store them with whatever system your school prefers.

Using the free Adobe Reader app, students can read and annotate workbook PDFs on PCs, Macs, and iOS devices. Compatibility with other software and devices not guaranteed.

God's Prevailing Work (Vol. 1)

Themes in Church History, AD 30–1517

Church history is the record of God's tenacious grace—growing and abounding in the hearts of imperfect people just like us. As we study the challenges of Christians in centuries past, we can better appreciate God's work in our own era. In this history-laden Bible study, students will trace the broad movements of the Christian church, from its earliest days to the dawn of the Reformation.

Sermon on the Mount

A Study of Matthew 5–7

One day, on a hillside in Galilee, Jesus explained how citizens of God's kingdom would live. This study walks verse by verse through Matthew 5–7, examining simple principles that can overturn the way students view faith, prayer, and religious duty. In these passages, the Author of Scripture unlocks mysteries of the Old Testament and opens a door to the New.
